Nude Swims arguments heard in court

/Surrey, British Columbia – October 19, 2007/ -- Judge Williamson of the B.C. Supreme Court yesterday reserved decision in the Judicial Review of the decision of the City of Surrey to disallow Skinnydipper Services Inc. from renting Newton Wave Pool for private nude swim events. The court did not set any date on which to expect the decision. Skinnydipper's President, Paul Andreassen said “We are pleased with the way the hearing went yesterday and very hopeful of a positive outcome.”

We will issue a media release as soon as we hear news of the decision.
