

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Court date set in Skinnydippers' pool fight

/Surrey, British Columbia - September 02, 2007/ -- After a long wait and much preparation, Skinnydipper Services Inc. will be going to court October 18, 2007. At that time a judge will hear arguments in the case between nudists and the City of Surrey over use of Newton Wave Pool for nude swims in private rentals. Company President, Paul Andreassen is hopeful that this will bring resolution to a dispute that has been going on for nearly five years. "We're not asking for something impossible or even unreasonable, we just want to rent the pool."
