Nudists dispute with Surrey finally over

/Surrey, British Columbia – March 13, 2008/ -- Skinnydipper Services Inc. is pleased to announce that all outstanding issues with the City of Surrey have now been resolved. Following the ruling handed down last November by Justice Paul Williamson, negotiations have been taking place between the company and the city over facility rental conditions. Skinnydipper President, Paul Andreassen said “ I am very happy with the outcome. We have been able to negotiate an amicable arrangement whereby we can rent the pool for nude swim sessions and receive the same treatment and respect accorded other groups. This also means that nude recreation will be more accessible to our members out in the Fraser Valley” This month marks exactly five years since the Skinnydipper Recreation Club moved to Renfrew Pool in Vancouver.
