

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Nude Recreation at Newton Wave Pool

/Surrey, British Columbia – March 23, 2008/ -- For the past five years, Skinnydipper Recreation Club has held its nude swims at Renfrew Pool in Vancouver after being banished from the Newton Wave Pool by Surrey Council. On Saturday night nearly 100 very happy Skinnydippers finally returned to the waters of the Newton Wave Pool in Surrey to frolic in the waves, slip down the newly renovated water slides and relax in the spa and steam room. “Last night's 'swim without a stitch' went off without a hitch” quipped Paul Andreassen, President of the club. “The turn out was a bit lower than what we'd hoped for as it was the Easter weekend and many of our U.S. members didn't come because of the long waits at the border. We did have a good response from our Fraser Valley members who live in Abbotsford and Chilliwack, which was encouraging.” The group is planning on booking the pool for another nude swim very soon and is looking forward to establishing a regular schedule of monthly swims in the future.
